

SEMINAR
“BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES IN MOLDOVA”
Friday, June 02, 2023

Location: Croatian Chamber of Economy, Business Internationalization Centre, Rooseveltova trg. 2, HR-10000 Zagreb

Preliminary agenda

|                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|---------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 9:30-10:00                | Registration                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 10:00-10:20(CRO time) | Welcome remarks by:Mr. Luka Burilović, President of the Croatian Chamber of EconomyH.E. Mr. Oleg Țulea, Ambassador of the Republic of Moldova to Republic of Croatia, with the residence in BudapestH.E. Marija Kapitanović, Ambassador of Croatia to the Republic of Moldova, with the residence in Bucharest |
| 10:20-11:20               | Panel: Marketing Moldova: Agriculture, IT and Light ManufacturingSpeakers:Iurie Fală, Executive Director of the Association of Producers and Exporters “Moldova Fruct”Natalia Donțu, Administrator of Moldova IT ParkMarcela Lozovanu, APIUS Moldova Association of Light Industry Manufacturers           |
| 11:20-11:40               | Questions & Answers                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 11:40-12:00               | Panel: Presentation of Free Economic Zones (FEZ) of the Republic of MoldovaSpeaker: Marin Ciobanu, General Director of the Free Economic Zone Balti                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 12:00-12:10               | Questions & Answers                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 12:10-12:30               | Success stories of Croatian companies of doing business in/with MoldovaSpeakers: Mr. Branko Roglić, Orbico                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 12:30-13.30               | B2B session paired with Moldovan Wine Tasting                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |