

Romania (RO)

Passport for goods

Last Modified : 14/09/2023 17:20

Country/Customs territory information is posted based on reports and notifications gathered from National Guaranteeing Associations and public sectors, the ATA Secretariat tries its best to make the data up-to-date, but ICC, in any case, is not liable for the accuracy of the content posted

National Guaranteeing Association

Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Romania

Date of accession to the ATA system

07/03/1967

Field of application notified

ATA Convention

"Professional equipment" Convention

"Exhibitions and Fairs" Convention

"Scientific equipment" Convention

"Commercial samples" Convention

Istanbul Convention and its Annexes A (with reservations), B1, B2, B3 (with reservations), B4, B5 (with reservations), B6, B7, B8, B9, C (with reservations), D, E (with reservations)

Application under national laws

Goods temporarily admitted

- (a) Sports equipment for use at a competition
- (b) Scientific equipment for purposes of research and education
- (c) Material intended for theatrical and similar performances
- (d) Copies of films for viewing by potential renters.

Special conditions:

Nil

Re-exportation

Partial re-exportation is permitted. Goods temporarily admitted under cover of an ATA Carnet may be taken into home use provided that the appropriate formalities are completed.

Territorial coverage

Customs territory

Other applications

ATA Carnets are accepted for postal traffic.

ATA Carnets are accepted for transit.

Languages in which Carnets should be completed

Romanian, French, English and German.

Replacement carnet

1. Yes, in accordance with Article 251 Union Customs Code (UCC).
2. When the original carnet expires and a replacement carnet needs to be processed, if the goods are located in Romania, this procedure can take place in Romania even if the initial importation was made in another EU member state.

Regularization fee requested by Customs

No

Customs offices

All Customs offices

Frontier offices are open permanently. Inland offices are open from 8 a.m.

Special observations