

Switzerland (CH)

Passport for goods

Last Modified : 05/08/2020 16:37

Country/Customs territory information is posted based on reports and notifications gathered from National Guaranteeing Associations and public sectors, the ATA Secretariat tries its best to make the data up-to-date, but ICC, in any case, is not liable for the accuracy of the content posted

National Guaranteeing Association

Alliance des Chambres de Commerce suisses

Date of accession to the ATA system

30/04/1963

Field of application notified

ATA Convention

Convention on "Professional equipment"

Convention on "Exhibitions and Fairs"

Convention on "Commercial Samples"

Convention on "Scientific equipment"

Convention on "Pedagogic equipment"

Convention repair of vehicles "Private Road Vehicles"

Convention: spare parts for repair of vehicles

Istanbul Convention and all its Annexes (with reservations on Annexes A, B1, B2, B3, B6, B7, B8, B9, C and D)

Territorial coverage

Customs territory. Extended to the Principality of Liechtenstein for such time as the Treaty of Customs Union with Switzerland remains in force.

Other applications

ATA Carnets are accepted for postal traffic.

ATA Carnets are accepted for transit.

Languages in which Carnets should be completed

French, German, Italian

Replacement carnet

Yes, in accordance with Article 14, Annex A of the Istanbul Convention

Regularization fee requested by Customs

The regularization fee is charged by Swiss customs in case of presentation of an alternative proof (proof of re-importation, Certificate of location, issued within validity time of ATA Carnet).

The regularization fee is calculated by 5 % on the amount of duties and taxes due in case of missing proof, minimum CHF 20.00 / maximum CHF 100.00.

Customs offices

Main Customs offices and some subsidiary Customs offices.

Normal duty hours (for details visit www.ezv.admin.ch)

Special observations